

Abstract of the Disclosure

A screen program including a program code for controlling a flow among a plurality of screens is 5 generated by using flow definition information which defines information for controlling a work flow, and screendefinition information which defines screen items of the plurality of screens used in the work flow.